

THE REED REPORT

JULY 2009

“OPEN YOUR EYES AND LOOK AT THE FIELDS!
THEY ARE RIPE FOR HARVEST.” JOHN 4:35

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 2

The Process is a Journey

Our journey to move to Krivoy Rog, Ukraine with Assemblies of God World Missions continues. We, along with our two daughters, Laura and Hope, are preparing to follow God's call and direction.

In June, we enjoyed two weeks in Springfield, MO at Central Bible College for Pre-Field Orientation (PFO). The days were full of learning and getting to know many other new Missionaries /Missionary Associates (MAs) and their kids. The last night of PFO was a commissioning service for the new MAs.

The MKs (Missionary Kids) had great activities and were well taken care of while we were in training. They learned that they are missionaries as well.

On Sunday July 5th, our home church, Waseca Christian Assembly, held a commissioning service for us. Our pastor spoke on the need for missions and dying to ourselves. He even had someone in the church build an old time casket for emphasis. What a powerful service that was!

Currently, we are targeting January/February 2010 for our move to Ukraine, once we have our house sold and our budget raised.

If you live in the upper Midwest, we would love the opportunity to come to share our heart with your church. Please share what we are doing with your Pastor and have them contact us to schedule a service. Even if your church is not taking on new missionaries, we would still be willing to come and share with you.

Pastors - we are willing to share in formats that work best for you whenever you have services. We would love to share in a missions window or to preach. Our family could minister in several songs or with a piano solo (Phil). We could also share in Sunday School or small groups, whether they include adults or kids.

PLEASE PRAY FOR:

- ◆ Wisdom as we prepare to move overseas
- ◆ Protection for us, at home and as we travel
- ◆ Finances to follow God's leading, including the sale of our home—at the right time and for the right price
- ◆ Our family (immediate and extended), and the many changes ahead
- ◆ Phil as he continues in his full-time job while we raise our budget
